EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY (EEOC)

The Office of Elderly Affairs is an Equal Employment Opportunity employer. It is the policy of the Office that no person shall be discriminated against on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, handicap, or any other non-merit factor, in any personnel or employment practice.

Employees who allege discrimination may file complaints with the Executive Director, Division of Administration, Human Resource Office or the Equal Employment Opportunity Coordinator of the Department of Civil Service.

An integral part of an Affirmative Action program is the resolution of discrimination complaints stemming from employment practices of state departments or agencies. Resolution of employment discrimination complaints at the lowest level is preferred. The Human Resource Office will investigate any complaint and advise alternate methods of resolution.
